

About Me

KIMBERLY RAMIREZ IS AN UPBEAT AND INSPIRING FORCE TO BE RECKONED WITH.

But don't let her bubbly energetic vibes fool you, her layers of real-world experience paired with years as a working actor and model give her a unique and effective perspective on voiceover work. Her voice has been utilized for Audio Description for major broadcasting networks, such as NBCUniversal, Sony, and Warner Bros. Her wholesome voice in Holiday radio spots and in children's storytelling media naturally provokes attention, engagement, and wonderful enthusiasm.

Kimberly brings a dynamic blend of pediatric critical care, sales, and hospitality experience to her work as a voice actor, making her a trusted and authentic choice for e-learning, medical and corporate narration, as well as commercial, promo, animation, edutainment, and video game projects. With a versatile range—from contemporary and grounded to warm and luxurious, or playful and youthful—she effortlessly embodies characters spanning from spunky kids to charismatic millennials, all while taking direction with ease.
